Red Raider Orientation

We highly encourage families to attend Red Raider Orientation with their students for many reasons:

- Further your transition to mentor/advisor
- Learn ways to help support your college student
- Gain insight into campus services
- Meet Faculty, Administrators, Staff, current students and other Texas Tech families
- Visit Lubbock and all it has to offer.

For more on Red Raider Orientation click here to visit the Orientation Services website.

We are so proud of you

Welcome to the Red Raider Family!

The TTU System is continuously working to enhance the cultural environment, beauty and gathering spaces of its campuses. The System has had a consistent commitment to the installation of public art throughout its spaces. We are reaching out to you today for your input on how the University's public art collection fits into your university experience. Please take a moment to complete this brief survey about the artwork that you see around campus.

Thank you for sharing your perspective.

Daily Toreador Off-Campus Housing Information!

Looking for an apartment or house for your student for next year? Check out the Housing Guide and information about renters' insurance and having pets from the Daily Toreador. You can search by apartment or house, the distance to campus, rent costs, and more.

Volunteer Sign Up is Open

Please sign up to help volunteer for the TTPA this year.

To sign up go to the Sign up Genius lookup page or email Ambassadors@ttpa.org email with subject line: Volunteer Opportunities.

Donations

Each year, TTPA asks our members to help us request donations. These generous gifts and donations to Texas Tech Parents Association support student success with scholarships and programs. All gifts are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. Thank you for investing your time and resources in the Texas Tech Parents Association and the continued success of Red Raider students.

Helpful Hints From the Experts

Head's Up May

Good Luck on Finals and Enjoy your Summer!

Interested in becoming a Parent Ambassador or Volunteering?

TTPA is a volunteer-led, 501(c)(3) non-profit organization where families help families as we walk this college journey together. You can volunteer at one event or several and serve on local and national committees. We are looking for more volunteers online and, in several areas, including Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Harlingen, Houston, Lubbock, Midland/Odessa, San Antonio, Tyler and Wichita Falls, as well as California, Colorado, New Mexico and other states and countries.

Parent Ambassador Volunteers allow us to continue offering fun and informative activities to our Red Raider families where they live. In addition, we offer a training session to make sure you are prepared to share all that TTPA has to offer. Our next training is coming up, so click here to find out more information about volunteer opportunities and training.
